New and Old Counties.

The following from the Bamberg Herald is of interest to The Herald's readers:

In his remarks to the grand jury last week Judge R. C. Watts paid this county a fine compliment. He remarked that our county affairs seemed to be in good shape, and that Bamberg was one of the few if not the only county in the State which was out of debt and had money ahead.

Bamberg is one of the new counties. Twelve years ago it cut off from Barnwell because taxes were too high. Bamberg, like Dillon, was twenty miles from the county seat. Today the people of Bamberg are happy, prosperous and contented and their county is out of debt, while Barnwell's debt is just what it was 12 years ago and the levy is just as high. The same may be said of other new counties.
